- I. The meeting was called to order at 12:35 in the Crummer Auditorium.
- II. The minutes of the September 27, 1988, faculty meeting were approved as published.
- III. The following were elected to replacement positions on College committees:

Eric Schutz: Admissions
Susan Lackman: Holt

- IV. President Seymour reported the following:

A. Apologizing for the misuse of the Galloway room by non-Rollins organizations, the President indicated that Jonathan Ehrlich of Bob Bowie's office will be working to see that the room is restored to its original purpose.

B. Dan DeNicola will engage in a monthly open conversation with the faculty, beginning October 28.

C. On the recommendation of CAB, Dan DeNicola will be evaluated this year. President Seymour is working on a mechanism for the evaluation, including the location of external peer evaluators. Betty Duda will represent the Board of Trustees in the process.

RECEIVED

NOV 1988

OFFICE OF DEAN OF THE FACULTY

D. In response to the Student Life Summit, a commission on alcohol is being established on campus.

E. President Seymour has accepted the recommendation that Rollins establish and staff an Affirmative Action Office. Bob Bowie is working on details, such as the wording of the advertisement announcing the position.

E. President Seymour has agreed to serve on the Board of the Association of American Colleges and has taken on more responsibilities in the Florida Association of Colleges and Universities. Rollins will participate in the FACU Campus Compact to channel student volunteerism. The current project is the mentoring of disadvantaged junior high and high school students.

IV. The Chair's presentation of the recommendations of the Personnel/Faculty Appointments Committee was followed by a brief discussion, including the suggestion from the floor that departments seeking positions be notified formally of the recommendations before a general announcement is made. It was pointed out that this year for the first time deliberations of the Appointments Committee were open to any who wanted to attend as observers.

V. Two "position papers" on hiring practices were presented, John Heath speaking for a curriculum-driven model and Harry Kypraios for a market-driven model.

VI. The following announcements were made:

A. An election-night vigil will be held in the Faculty Club beginning at 7:30, November 8.

B. Harold Ward, Chair of the Board of Trustees, will meet with faculty representatives to discuss the disposition of the Park Avenue Building.

VI. Hoyt Edge introduced a resolution concerning college-wide consultation of faculty, students, and staff in issues that directly affect their lives." Discussion was ended by a quorum call which failed to produce the required number. The Chair indicated that he would recommend that the Steering Committee place the resolution early on the agenda of the next faculty meeting.

VII. The meeting ended at 1:30.
